Lake County Law Library
Behavior Policy

To insure that your visit is productive and pleasant for you and for other patrons, please observe the following guidelines:

Shirts and footwear must be worn at all times in the Library.

Tobacco products, alcoholic beverages and illegal drugs are prohibited.

Individuals using computers in the library may not send, receive, or display text or graphics that may reasonably be construed as obscene.

Harassing others, either verbally or through actions is prohibited. Harassment may include but is not limited to profanity or abusive language toward patrons or staff members; initiating unwanted conversations; impeding access to the building; or other actions another individual reasonably perceives to be hostile, threatening or offensive.

Loitering, buying, selling, or soliciting for personal or commercial gain, distributing leaflets and proselytizing on the premises of the Library is prohibited.

The Library does not permit weapons of any kind, either concealed or in plain view, on its property or in its buildings, unless the owner of the weapon is a law enforcement officer.

Any activity within the Library premises that violates federal, state, local or other applicable law, ordinance or regulation is prohibited.

Animals are not permitted in the Library, except for service animals assisting people with disabilities and animals used by law enforcement agencies.

Entering non-public areas of the Library is prohibited, unless accompanied by a Library staff member or with proper permission.

Anyone may, without prior notice or warning, be removed from the premises if his or her presence or conduct is construed as threatening, willfully malicious or poses an immediate and imminent danger to any person or property.
